Life is not a Disney Film
Michael Corbin (September 25, 2005)

We all know it. It's seems silly to even say it. Life is not a Disney film. Still, fantasy is so alluring. Wouldn't it be great if we could really live the lives we've fantasized? The remote control would be in our hands so that we could block out any undesirable channels. We could zap out any semblance of unpleasantness before it crept into our storyline. Everything would be in Technicolor and we would always be animated, shiny and happy.
