

Value is lightness or darkness of a color.

Above are ten step value scales. You can print, mount the one at left on heavy stock, and punch out the holes to create one. Value zero = black, 1= white and 5= 50% gray.

To use: place the 'value finder' over an area, and squint to match the value.